RECONNECTING WITH NATURE

CULTURE

Centenary of the first Olympic Games (1924-2024) The Maison de la Mémoire et du Patrimoine is presenting a new exhibition on the theme of "Chamonix 1924: The Invention of the Winter Olympics". As part of the centenary of the first Winter Olympics, this exhibition offers an in-depth look at the organization and staging of this event. Discover how Chamonix-Mont-Blanc played a part in the invention of the Olympic Winter Games!

A highlight not to be missed in the centenary year of the first Winter Olympics is the exhibition at the Maison de la mémoire et du patrimoine Jany Couttet, entitled "Chamonix 1924: l'invention des Jeux Olympiques d'hiver" (Chamonix 1924: the invention of the Winter Olympics). Through a series of photographic and film archives, as well as objects from the era such as athletes' outfits, this exhibition offers a real plunge into history, and in this case, into this Olympic week. It runs until March 15, 2025.
