Not to be missed!

AIGUILLE DU MIDI

An unforgettable experience!
Travel up to the world of very high mountains and admire the superb 360° panoramic views over the Swiss, Italian and French Alps:
the exceptional is made accessible in roughly 25 minutes.

Audio guide of your visit: down load the Aiguille du Midi app:

Télécharger dans l'App Store DISPONIBLE SUR Google play

Discover:

The step into the void: Dare enter this glass box and look down at the 1000 m precipice under your feet!

The Mont-Blanc wing: Enjoy a panoramic view over 3 legendary summits - Mont Blanc, Mont Maudit, Mont Blanc du Tacul - whilst keeping nice and warm behind vast glass windows.
Additionally, discover beautiful pictures of mountaineers in action!

Hypoxia level: discover the effects of the lack of oxygen in high altitudes on your body.

The pipe: This 32-m long steel gallery allows you to walk right round the central pillar of Aiguille du Midi at an altitude of over 3700 metres.

History area: a retrospective exhibition of the construction of the cable! Also look at its impressible machinery!

Vertical area: a museum dedicated to climbers, mountaineers and adventurers!
This is the place to gain a better knowledge and understanding of the frightening and awe-inspiring world of high mountains.

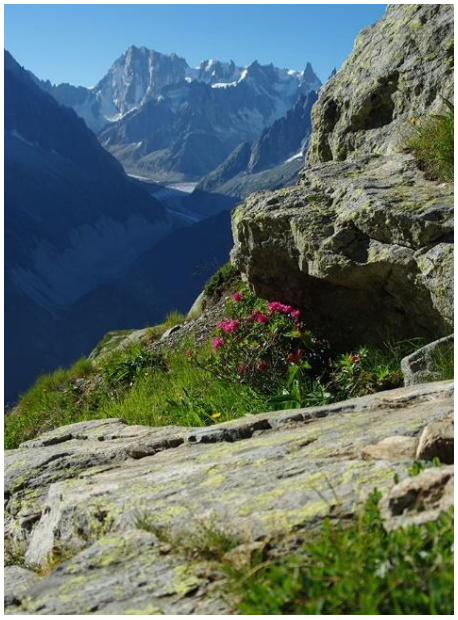

MER DE GLACE

Facing Les Drus and Les Grandes Jorasses, discover the famous Mer de Glace glacier in its summer setting.
From Chamonix, a 20-minutes' ride aboard the Montenvers rack and pinion train will lead you up to the foot of Mer de Glace at 1913 m.
This is the longest and largest glacier in France: 7 km long with a surface area of 40 km².

There you also can discover:

- The glaciorium: A small museum to learn about the formation, existence and evolution of a glacier through the ages.
- The ice cave gives you the opportunity to go down into the glacier and admire the ice sculptures.
  In order to visit the ice cave, take a gondola and then walk down 180 steps.
- The nature temple shows a little film about the history of the area: not accessible for people with reduced mobility.

Getting around in the valley!

By train with the Mont-Blanc Express train

The SNCF railway line serves all villages from Saint-Gervais-Le Fayet until Le Châtelard on the Swiss border, going through Servoz, Les Houches, Chamonix, Argentière and Vallorcine.

One train approximately every hour.

Trains are free from or until Saint-Gervais-Le Fayet train station with the Mont Blanc Unlimited pass.

When there are works on the railway line, buses instead of trains run between Vallorcine and Saint-Gervais-Le Fayet.

Information at the railway stations or the tourist offices of the Chamonix valley.

By bus

A regular urban transport serves the valley between Servoz and Le Tour villages.
Express bus lines allow you to go to the bottom of the ski areas with specific bus lines.
4-night buses run every day.

Beware: some bus lines or time slots are to be booked over Chamonix Mobility

Prices: online over Chamonix Mobility website or at the tourist offices of the valley.

Bus tickets can be bought online or at Chamonix Mobilité machines located at:

- Chamonix Sud, near Chamonix Mobilité's desk;
- Chamonix tourist office;
- Les Houches tourist office;
- Rocky Pop Hotel at Les Houches.

Free access to all buses with a Mont Blanc Multipass during the day.
The guest card holders will get reductions on the buses rates.

Phone: 0033 4 50 53 05 55
Internet: www.chamonix-mobilite.com

By foot! Where to park?

The best way to enjoy stunning views of the panorama is to leave your car in one of the car parks of the valley.
You will get 1 hour free of charge in many Chamonix car parks, for example in the indoor Saint-Michel, Mont-Blanc and Entrèves car parks!

In Chamonix:

- Centre-ville pay car park at the entrance of the town behind the Aiguille du Midi cable car, close to a bus and Mulet stop;
- 3 underground pay car parks;
- 4 outside pay car parks.

Information: Chamonix Parc Auto at 0033 4 50 53 70 58 and in Saint-Michel car park.

Brochure concerning the car parks available at all Tourist Offices of the valley.

Two pay car parks located 200m away from the Chamonix Tourist Office have places for people with reduced mobility:

- The Outa car park (car park with barriers) has two places for people with reduced mobility.
  To go and visit the Tourist Office from this car park, go on the path on the right side of these car park places, continue in front of the public toilets and then along the car park.
  At the end of the car park, continue straight away on the pavement along the Mont-Blanc hotel and its restaurant “Le Matafan”.
  You will find the Tourist Office just after the hotel on your left side;

- The underground Saint-Michel pay car park has places for people with reduced mobility on the 1st, 3rd and 5th floors: access with a lift only to these floors.
  To reach the Tourist Office from this car park, please go on the bridge located at the pedestrian exist of the car park, then go down on the access ramp on the left side of the church, continue straight away in front of the Mountain House (Maison de la Montagne) until a second access ramp.
  This ramp will directly lead you to the Tourist Office.

In Les Houches:
Free car parks at Le Tourchet and Le Prarion.
A free car park place for people with reduced mobility is available in front of the souvenirs shop “Le Floch’on” located 30m across the tourist office.

In Argentière:
Les Fiz car park, a free car park at the very end of the village:
- on your right side if you arrive from Chamonix
- on your left if you arrive from Vallorcine.

In Vallorcine:
a specific car park place for people with reduced mobility is to be found on the left side of the office about 20 m away from the entrance door situated in front of the office.
Vehicles with a visible handicapped sticker are allowed to stay for free on Le Buet car park, on the car park close to the cable car and on the one on the side of the tourist office.

Leaving points:

- From Grands Montets car park in Argentière, follow directions for the helicopter base - 10 minutes by foot,
- From Argentière centre through the woods – a 30 minutes' walk (flat and up).

There are many other hiking itineraries, for all levels, without forgetting the scenic "balcony trails":

- “Petit Balcon Sud” from Argentière to Merlet parc;
- “Grand Balcon Sud” from Col des Montets to Planpraz;
- “Petit Balcon Nord” from the hamlet of Les Bois to the village of Le Tour.
- “Grand Balcon Nord” from Plan de l’Aiguille to Montenvers;

The Tourist Office regularly issues and updates a hiking map and a hiking guidebook in collaboration with the Town Hall’s trails department:

- The hiking map for €5,
- The “map + guidebook” for €16.

Ask for them at the shops of the tourist offices of the valley.

A “Mont Blanc region” hiking map is also available for €7.

Before leaving for a hike, don’t forget to inform you about the snow conditions ! Grand Balcons hikes should not be undertaken before the end of May or mid-June, depending on the year !

Associations to assist people with a disability

• Access Mont-Blanc: EQUIPMENT FOR HIRE

Do you have reduced mobility but want to access the mountain trails?
Rent one of the following 3 electric all-terrain machines:

- Quadrix is an all-terrain electric wheelchair that is really easy to manage by anyone with a disability over 15 years old.
- FAT Jeetrike is a hybrid hand tricycle, with electric assistance to help you pedal. It has independent suspension and the axle is fixed. There is also a trigger that allows you to switch to full electric mode if you are too tired to pedal.
- Bowhead RX is an ultra high-performance hybrid all-terrain hand tricycle. They recommend that it is only used by experienced cyclists or handbikers. The front wheels articulate to take corners at high speed, so upper body strength and coordination are essential to master this machine.

Access Mont Blanc will provide you with a guidebook showing you accessible trails as well as the difficulty of the terrain and the steepness of the slope. They also offer a GPS that can be used in addition to the guidebook and you can borrow their trailer allowing you to start your adventure anywhere in the valley. To pre-plan your outing, you can find the guidebook on their website.
